LOCAL NOTES.

The Legislature adjourns to-day.

They are talking of organizing a voluntary company of minute men in Nogales.

A Justice of the Peace at Ionia, Mich., has begun suit against a man for a wedding fee.

The Cochise county members of the Legislature will leave for their homes immediately after the adjournment.

Uncle Sam's paymaster will visit Fort Huachuca to-morrow and disburse two months' pay to the troops.

Ranchers and farmers report cattle as doing well in Sulphur Spring valley, but want rain all the same.

Capt. Jack Crawford, the Indian scout and frontier poet, will lecture in Tombstone next week.

A report is out that the Mamie has been bought by a well known mining capitalist of Tombstone.

The Crittenden smelter, which has been talked of for the past year, is liable to be a reality. Tucson says "me, too."

The Concord (N. H.) Monitor tells of a man whose wife, having been killed by the cars, settled with the railroad company for $25.

Robert Holmes, well known in this city, arrived from Volcano City yesterday. Bob speaks in terms of praise of that promising mining camp.

The sound of the pick and drill is music to the ears of the Tombstone population. It foretells of the prosperous days in store for her people.

Dakota had three new governors in one week. Arizona manages to move with just one, and a native of New Jersey at that. Our fame is spreading.

The New York Legislature had a bill before it taxing bachelors one fourth of their income; the proceeds to be applied to the support of widows and orphans.

It is expected that the iron horse will awaken the slumbering denizens of Phoenix from their long and peaceful sleep sometime in the early part of May.

Some of the finest timber land in the United States is in the White mountains. Remove the Apaches from San Carlos and that will be the future garden spot of Arizona.

It is said that Col. Gray had evil designs upon Nogales. Col. Gray evidently desired Nogales to prosper, hence his wish to fasten the town to something that was alive and moving.

The dog-fund has suspended operations for a time, but we may expect the canine murderer to get in his work again at any time, especially so as the summer months advance.

The passage of the Interstate commerce bill will very materially interfere with the comforts of the Arizona Legislators in their efforts to reach their anxious constituents.

Max Frest, editor of the New Mexican, was tried on the charge of fraudulent land entries. He was found guilty as charged, and sentenced to one year in the penitentiary and to pay a fine of $5,000.

Mr. Bonner refuses $100,000 for Maud S., and probably would refuse an offer of any kind. When horses come to be worth more than an entire Board of Aldermen what is the country coming to?

Coon hunting seems to be a lucrative sport in some parts of Missouri. Two hunters recently chopped down an evident "coon tree" near Trenton and got three coons, 400 pounds of honey, and an gyster can in which were $280 in gold.

The righteous as well as the wicked appear to stand in shivery places. The same ice that brought Ben Butler down with a fractured bone also caused the painful downfall of the good Carl Schurz.

ARIZONA vs. MONTANA.

Arizona's Supremacy Over Her Snow-bound Neighbors.

The cold weather, and other causes inseparable from the climate of Montana, have destroyed upwards of 600,000 head of cattle during the four months just passed. The loss will aggregate some $20,000,000. What a vast difference there must be in the climate of Montana and Arizona. Here in this Territory, the result from such causes will not reach one in four thousand head. Truly Arizona's day is just beginning to dawn. Her prospects will come unsought; it will come from the ice-bound coasts of New England—from the cold withering blasts of Montana and Nebraska, and from over-crowded, over-burdened cities of the east, the tide is westward bound. The broad unoccupied acres of Arizona are beginning to attract the sturdy energetic men of the east, whose lives have been frittered away in vain efforts to force the stoney barren soil of that country to yield up treasures which it does not contain—this is the class of immigration that will bring the bloom of eden to the willing and productive soil of Arizona. This is the class of men who crossed the lonely prairies in the early days of our country; who followed the setting sun to the base of the Sierra Nevada's, and planted the evidence of American industry upon the soil.

OF SPANISH AMERICA,

whenever and wherever an opportunity presented itself. Where energy and courage are essential in the building and settling of a promising country there will be seen the hardy American settler surrounded by evidence of thrift and industry. The fertile valleys, and broad mesas of Arizona, offer to this character of settlers very superior inducements, and one which they will not be slow to grasp. Every county in this Territory have large tracts of lands within their boundaries, which can be successfully operated with a small capital, and the day is fast approaching when all such will be utilized.

Arizona's prosperity has been retarded by many and various causes—principally among the many in the past, has been the Apache curse, but now every impediment has been removed and the many inducements which this state of affairs hold out to the people of the east, we believe will be taken immediate advantage of, and during the next three years will witness a wonderful flow of immigration to this sunny clime. All are welcome. Our broad domains are of sufficient dimensions to provide a home for all who wish to cast their lot with us. The EPITAPH predicts that before many years roll by, that Arizona will team with wealth and population, from Yuma to the line of New Mexico.

An Old Timer.

James P. Wheeler, one of the very first miners in this camp, the man who located the Gilded Edge and the Way-up mines, has returned to Tombstone, after six years of wandering in New Mexico and Colorado. Mr. Wheeler has spent the time in Grant county N. M., but returns to the old stamping ground impressed with the idea that this is the best mineral country in the west. Jimmy says: "The boys in this city think that times are hard and money scarce; but in comparing it with other mining sections it towers up and beyond them all in a remarkable degree." Our long and pleasant acquaintance with Mr. Wheeler privileges us to speak of his many sterling qualities both as a gentleman, and a miner, and we are pleased to chronicle the gentlemen's return to Tombstone.

Dakota's Politics.

The new governor of Dakota is Judge Church, a Democrat. His Council, composed of other Territorial officers, are Republicans. Governor Church has some offices to fill, and the Council must confirm his appointments. For the purpose of showing their own contempt for spoils the Republicans suggested to the Governor that he make up his various commissions of two Republicans and one Democrat, but Judge Church announces that he will fix it the other way. While this important question is being settled Dakota will not care much whether it gets into the Union or not. All it cares for is political excitement.

Hard is the fate of New York Aldermanic corruptionists. The latest to go to Sing Sing, John O'Neil, was fifty-six years of age. He had never used tobacco or liquor in any form, an abstinence which doesn't seem to have been mostly beneficial. As he fell into line for the back-step in the convict procession, now ready a member of the gang, his hand rested on the shoulder of a burly negro. That in an O'Neil must have been the unkindest cut of all.

County Records.

The following instruments were recorded at the office of the County Recorder yesterday:

A MORTGAGE—H. K. Hildebrand to J. B. McCann, cattle and horses, cash $735.

DEED—Barrett & Wood to George H. Carroll, 1/2 interest in lots 9, 12, 13, block 6, Tombstone, with improvements and appurtenances, also a like interest in all property of Southwestern Ice Company and personal, $1 and other considerations.

MORTGAGES—Lydia M. Clark to C. S. Clark, lots 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, block 62, Tombstone, consideration, $200.

POWER OF ATTORNEY—Lydia M. Clark to James M. Clark, general.

Between the water works on Contention hill and the Mayflower mine a large rent is broken through the solid rock of the hill's side. It is over a block long and from six inches to a foot in width. A stone dropped in the rent could be heard for a long time as it ricochet from side to side. It is not known how it occurred, but it is supposed to have been caused by underground mining or the setting of the Grand Central since the fire. The rent or seam is considerably larger in a number of places than a few months since, and the impression prevails that the drifts and tunnels in the Grand Central have been causing, thus starting the earth to lean that way.

When Riddleberger is under his desk the Senate manages to get along with much decorum. When Riddleberger is humorously full, there are many interruptions. When Riddleberger is ugly then the Senate must be prepared for his insolence. He was ugly the other day when Mr. Edmunds rose to move that the Pacific Railroad bill be taken up. "If there is a chesnut bell in the capitol," said Riddleberger, "I move that it be tolled." The courtesy of the Senate is the only thing that keeps Riddleberger out of the hands of the police. He has two years to run.

Governor Doremus's paper makes a grievous mistake in referring to Henry Waterson as an "insect." The ditto guished Kentuckian is smashing too much Democratic crockery to be placed in such a classification. If Eastern pig-sticker and boiler plate Democrats will observe Waterson and let their fire-breathing Democrats of the West fly and discover that there are no flies on them.

At a recent meeting of the Congregational club, of San Francisco, it was said that in that city of 300,000 inhabitants the attendance at the Protestant churches was about 32,000 and at the Catholic churches about 18,000, making a total church attendance of about 50,000. Probably about three-fourths of the population never attend church.

Nogales comes sensibly to the front and offers to vaccinate any of its poor people free. The same thing should be done in Tombstone. There are many people here who can ill afford to vaccinate themselves or families. An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. Every precaution should be taken to avert a calamity that may occur when least expected, or at any time.

A correspondent in Mexico writes of a little six-year-old Mexican girl who, during being laid out day, said in Spanish, with perfect innocence and thought of reverence, "Jesus, but I'm hungry." The writer says that the little children, in moments of sudden fright or pain, cross themselves and murmur, "Protect me, God," as devoutly as their elders do.

The Democratic reform administration is a mighty choice morsel for the people. It managed by its superior wisdom and its overdose of reform to increase the cost of government fully twenty per cent. The good man above save us from any more "reform" of this character. A few more applications would bankrupt the Territory.

A woman in Huntington, Pa., writes to a newspaper to say that if she had the courage of Mrs. Druce, she would chop up the monster who is her husband and feed him to the bears in Pike county. The gentlemen in Huntington, Pa., go garmented now and sleep with one eye open.

Leaders of both parties in the Indiana Legislature announce that they are ready to go before the people on the records that they have made. President Ceen Smith, of the Senate, has a record of seven fights and no deaths as yet.

When the people of Indiana elected Mr. Robinson Lieutenant Governor they evidently forgot to consult the Democratic State Senate. This symposium will positively take place with stuffed club attachments at the next election.

A verdict was rendered in the Circuit court of LaSalle county, Illinois, against four Geneca saloon keepers in favor of Mrs. Curran for $5,000. Her husband had been killed while in a state of intoxication, and the defendants are charged with making him drunk.

Mrs. O'Brien, who has so long conducted a boarding house on Allen, between Fifth and Sixth streets, in view of the improved times, has taken possession of the old Ross House, on the corner of Fifth and Toughnut streets, and is now open ready for business.

Unnecessary Misery.

Probably as much misery comes from habitual constipation as from any derangement of the functions of the body, and it is difficult to cure, for the reason that no one likes to take the medicines usually prescribed. HAMBURG FIGS were prepared to obviate this difficulty, and they will be found pleasant to the taste of women and children. 25 cents. At all druggists. J. Mack & Co., proprietors, S. F.

Ladies will find at Tweed's a full assortment of toilet soaps.

Notice.

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Cochise will receive bids for carrying the insane to the Territorial Asylum at Phenix. The contract to be awarded will run to January 10, 1888. The bids must be accompanied with a good and sufficient bond in the sum of $500, conditioned that the bidder will enter into a contract within ten days should the same be awarded him, the same must and be filed with the Clerk of the Board before April 4th, 1887, at which time the bids will be opened. The Board reserves the right to reject any bid.

Dated March 2nd, 1887.

The Western Settler's Chosen Specific.

With every advance of immigration into the Far West, a new demand is created for Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Newly peopled regions are frequently less salubrious than older settled localities, on account of the miasma which rises from recently cleared land, particularly along the banks of rivers that are subject to freshets. The agricultural or mining emigrant soon learns, when he does not already know, that the Bitters afford the only sure protection against malaria, and those disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels, to which climate changes, exposure, and unaccustomed or unhealthy water or diet subject him. Consequently, he places an estimate upon this great household specific and preventive commensurate with its intrinsic merits, and is careful to keep on hand a restorative and promoter of health so implicitly to be relied upon in time of need.

A cold may be a dangerous thing or not, depending upon the means at hand to combat it. It is a wise precaution to provide against emergencies that are liable to arise in every family. In sudden attacks of cold, grip, asthma, etc., Ayer's Cherry Pectoral will prove the quickest and most effective cure, and your best friend.

A Pretty Woman's Secret.

Fear of discovery, when she resorts to false hair and dyes, is a source of constant anxiety to her. The very persons from whom she most desires to hide the waning of her charms are the ones most likely to make the discovery. But there is no reason why she should not retain and retain all the beauty of her hair that was her pride in youth. Let her use AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, and not only will her hair cease to fall out, but a new growth will appear where the scalp has been denuded; and locks that are turning gray, or have actually grown white, will return to their pristine freshness and brilliance of color. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR cures

Hereditary Baldness.
GEORGE MAYER, Flatonia, Texas, was bald at 23 years of age, as his ancestors had been for several generations. One bottle of HAIR VIGOR started a growth of soft, downy hair all over his scalp, which soon became thick, long, and vigorous.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

is not a dye, but, by healthful stimulation of the roots and color glands, speedily restores to its original color hair that is Turning Gray.

Mrs. CATHERINE DEAMER, Point of Rocks, Md., had her hair suddenly blanched by fright, during the late civil war. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR restored it to its natural color, and made it softer, glossier, and more abundant than it had been before.

Scalp Diseases.
Which cause dryness, brittleness, and falling of the hair, dandruff, itching, and annoying sores, are all quickly cured by AYER'S HAIR VIGOR. Cured HERBERT ROYD, Minneapolis, Minn., of intolerable itching of the scalp; J. N. CARTER, JR., Occoquan, Va., of Scald Head; Mrs. D. V. S. LOWELL, Louisville, Ky., of Tetter Sores; Miss HESSIE H. BIDDLE, Burlington, Vt., of Scald Disease and Dandruff. Tenderness of the roots of the hair, which, if neglected, may result in incurable baldness, is readily cured by AYER'S HAIR VIGOR.

A Toilet Luxury
AYER'S HAIR VIGOR has no equal. It is colorless, cleanly, delightfully perfumed, and has the effect of making the hair soft, pliant, and glossy.
